

Stanstead Est and Barnston West Circuit

Céline Dion, 2014

Fifteen cemeteries to discover!

This circuit has the largest number of cemeteries to visit, and they're all worthwhile and feature breathtaking scenic views. Most of these cemeteries are Protestant. Explore a world of British-inspired landscaping and funerary symbols including tombs, tree trunks and the low granite walls that delineate certain family plots.

The gorgeous Crystal Lake cemetery is divided into two sections marked by two gates: Pierce Memorial Gate, on the left-hand side of the site (Protestant area), and Davis Memorial Gate, on the right-hand side (Anglican area).

The circuit includes Way's Mills Cemetery, which is the oldest, at nearly 200 years old. It is still in operation today. Daniel Way, one of the Pioneer Trail characters, has been buried there since 1875.
